About Fresno GROWS Best Babies Zone Initiative

Fresno GROWS is a collaborative initiative with West Fresno Family Resource Center, Fresno County Department of Public Health, and local champions. Fresno GROWS is a community-centered, place-based, multi-sector effort to reduce racial inequities in infant mortality and birth outcomes, in 4 targeted census tracts (2, 7, 9.02, 10) with the highest rates of preterm births and infant mortality among African American families. Located in the 93706 zip code area, the zone represents approximately 2,700 African American residents.

Other coalition partners include: First 5 Fresno County, Fresno Economic Opportunities Commission, the DAWN Initiative, BLACK Wellness & Prosperity Center, the Black Child Legacy Campaign, UCSF California Preterm Birth Initiative, CityMatCH, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

About West Fresno Family Resource Center

West Fresno Family Resource Center (WFFRC) is the backbone of the Fresno GROWS “Hub” which sustains an African American-led, community-centered effort. Our mission is to empower and support the West Fresno community to achieve optimal health and well-being. The WFFRC is also newly designated as an EnVision Center to provide the Southwest neighborhood with centralized support following four pillars: 1) economic empowerment; 2) educational advancement; 3) health and wellness; and 4) character and leadership. Serving more than 5,000 persons annually, WFFRC stands on a long legacy of grassroots advocacy and is a trusted source of neighborhood services since 2001.
